

THE SANCTUARY HOTEL AND SPA EARNS TOP RATINGS

Kiawah Island, SC, February 12, 2020 – The Sanctuary and The Spa at The Sanctuary at Kiawah Island Golf Resort have both received the highest rating from one of the world’s most respected authorities in the hospitality industry. The Sanctuary and The Spa at The Sanctuary have earned the coveted Five Star Award from Forbes Travel Guide. This is the twelfth consecutive year the luxury property has earned the distinction of being the only Forbes Five Star Hotel and Spa in South Carolina.

“For Forbes Travel Guide to recognize The Sanctuary in this manner reflects the tireless effort and dedication of each employee who strives every moment to deliver our guests an unparalleled experience that is caring, gracious and genuine,” said The Sanctuary General Manager Bill Lacey.

The Forbes Travel Guide is world-renowned and the only global rating system for luxury hotels, restaurants and spas. Forbes inspectors anonymously visit hotels and spas that potentially offer the level of service and facilities to qualify for a minimum of two nights. During their stay, the inspectors evaluate each property’s service and facilities based on up to nine hundred objective standards. Inspected properties must score a ninety or higher to earn Forbes Five Stars.
